

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Ottawa:

Seeking part-time accompanist

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Ottawa is seeking a part-time accompanist to play piano on Sunday mornings. The accompanist should be able to play approximately 3 to 6 pieces on Sunday (our hour-long service from 10:30-11:30 generally includes Prelude, Postlude, as well as 1-3 hymns/songs sung by the congregation, and music to accompany the taking of the offering). Each service is a little different, and music is chosen by the service leader with input from the accompanist. Comfort playing for multiple genres (e.g. classical, hymn, folk, jazz) an asset.

Time commitment: 1 hour of playing time on Sunday mornings, plus prep time. Ideally the accompanist would be present at least 3 Sundays each month.

Pay: $75 per Sunday (1hr).

Optional Choir Director Role:

If the Accompanist is comfortable and interested, there is the possibility of adding an extra half hour on Sunday mornings for prepping songs with our “pick up choir” – the Songsters. Singers are invited to arrive early and run through the songs for that morning with the Choir Director/Accompanist before the Sunday service begins.

Time/Pay: Additional 1/2 hour $37.50 per Sunday.
